

Botswana In-Home Distribution Box Manufacturer

Article Overview

VAL DOR Electrical Switchboards and Mips Distributors are key providers of home distribution boxes and electrical enclosures in Botswana.

VAL DOR Electrical Switchboards

VAL DOR, based in Gaborone, manufactures a variety of electricity distribution boards suitable for residential and commercial construction projects. Their product range includes low-voltage distribution boards, wall-mounted panels, and floor-standing panels. They also provide related electrical enclosures such as feeder pillars, control panels, and approved BPC metering kiosks, making them a comprehensive solution for electrical distribution needs in Botswana .

Mips Distributors

Mips Distributors supplies PVC wall boxes (3×3) designed for safe installation of switches and sockets. These boxes are made from durable PVC, offering strong insulation and long-lasting performance. Mips serves electricians, contractors, hardware stores, and large-scale construction projects, acting as a wholesale partner for electrical installation materials across Botswana .
