

Cable tray product support manufacturer

Article Overview

Leading manufacturers of cable tray support systems include Eurotray, HDmann, Øglænd System, Wibe Group, and Atkore International, offering a wide range of trays, ladders, mesh trays, and accessories for industrial and commercial applications.

Key Manufacturers and Their Offerings

Eurotray Support Systems provides cable management solutions including trays, mounting supports, connection parts, and fittings. Their products are designed for heavy cable loads, vertical applications, and environments requiring high hygiene standards, such as data centers and food manufacturing plants. They offer galvanized, aluminum, and painted finishes, along with turnkey installation solutions and earthquake-resistant designs for residential and industrial projects . HDmann Cable & Strut Support Systems specializes in steel, fiber-reinforced plastic (FRP), and wire mesh cable trays. They focus on heavy-duty applications in offshore oil and gas, mining, and natural gas industries. Their systems include integrated bridge design and manufacturing services, providing robust support for high-end industrial projects . Øglænd System manufactures cable trays and ladders in stainless steel, galvanized steel, aluminum, and fiberglass composites (FRP/GRP). Their products are suitable for both onshore and offshore projects, offering various heights and widths, slot patterns for easy cable fixing, and a wide range of brackets and fittings for compact and stable installations . Wibe Group offers a broad range of cable ladders, trays, mesh trays, and wall trunking. Their products are designed for commercial buildings, industrial environments, data centers, and extreme applications like offshore wind, nuclear, and food & beverage industries. They provide corrosion-resistant, anti-static, and non-conductive solutions, including the innovative CLX 3 clickable support syst...
