

Czech Explosion-proof Distribution Box Manufacturer

Article Overview

Generi, s.r.o. and RSBP spol. s r.o. are leading Czech manufacturers of explosion-proof distribution boxes and related electrical equipment.

Generi, s.r.o.

Generi, established in 1993, is a Czech manufacturer specializing in electrical equipment for hazardous (Ex) and industrial areas. Their product range includes explosion-proof terminal boxes, aluminium distributors, surge protection devices, sockets, transformer boxes, lighting sets, and custom solutions for industrial applications. Generi also provides services such as installation, repair, and maintenance of heating cables and electrical systems. The company holds multiple certifications, including ISO 9001:2001, ATEX Q 006, EAC for Russia, Belarus, Kazakhstan, and OBÚ certification for installation and maintenance, ensuring compliance with international safety standards.

RSBP spol. s r.o.

RSBP focuses on explosion protection systems, including devices that detect and suppress explosions in milliseconds, reducing pressure to safe levels. Their solutions include explosion isolation flap valves, quick-acting slide valves, HRD barriers, and the ELEVEX system for vertical and horizontal conveyors. While RSBP specializes more in protective systems than distribution boxes, their products complement explosion-proof electrical installations in high-risk industrial environments....
