

Direct supply of cable trays from Southern Europe

Article Overview

Southern Europe offers a range of direct suppliers for cable trays, including Eurotray, Valdinox, Eurostrut, Trayco, and DKC Europe, providing industrial, mesh, ladder, and custom solutions.

Key Suppliers and Offerings

Eurotray Support Systems specializes in heavy-duty cable trays suitable for industrial and data center applications. Their products include trays, mounting supports, connection parts, and fittings designed for vertical and raised-floor installations, with solutions for low, medium, and high voltage cables. They also provide turnkey systems and earthquake-resistant designs, making them ideal for complex projects in Southern Europe (Eurotray) . Valdinox focuses on wire mesh cable trays and accessories, offering high production capacity and fast delivery across Europe. Their EASYCONNECT® system integrates fixing components to reduce installation time and costs, while ensuring strength and safety. Valdinox also provides custom-made solutions tailored to project requirements, making them a reliable choice for industrial and commercial installations (Valdinox) . Eurostrut supplies cable trays for industrial and marine applications, including distribution trays, cable routes, and NATO-type models. They offer direct quotes through their webshop, facilitating straightforward procurement for Southern European clients (Eurostrut) . Trayco produces Belgian-made cable trays, mesh trays, and cable ladders, with a focus on optimization and consulting during installation. They provide tailored advice and customized solutions, supporting projects from design to implementation (Trayco)
