

Fiber Optic Cable Distribution in Greece

Article Overview

Greece is actively expanding its fiber optic network through major providers, manufacturers, and infrastructure projects, aiming to deliver high-speed connectivity nationwide.

Key Manufacturers and Providers

Hellenic Cables is one of Europe's largest cable producers, manufacturing submarine, power, and telecommunication cables, including fiber optic solutions . Other notable companies include ELECNET S.A., which specializes in optical fiber network development and structured wiring systems, and OSP Contractors, offering turnkey engineering solutions for fiber optic installations . SeaCables focuses on marine and submarine cables, while INALAN provides high-speed residential and business fiber optic internet services with speeds up to 10Gbps .

Major Infrastructure Projects

PPC FiberGrid, part of the PPC Group, is investing approximately EUR 900 million to establish a nationwide Fiber-To-The-Home (FTTH) network, targeting coverage for 3 million households over five years . This project emphasizes ultra-high-speed broadband and supports Greece's digital transformation initiatives. Vodafone Greece also offers FTTH services, providing residential and business customers with speeds ranging from 300Mbps to 1Gbps, along with programs like Smart Readiness to facilitate fiber installation in buildings without existing optical infrastructure .
