

How much does a 15-meter pre-fabricated pigtail cable cost

Article Overview

A 15-meter pre-fabricated pigtail cable typically costs between $50 and $150, depending on voltage, connector type, and supplier.

Supplier Options and Pricing

Level Five Supplies offers pigtail cables in 1, 5, 10, and 15-meter lengths, with standard 24 V versions and custom 12 V options available. Prices vary based on connector orientation and any custom specifications, and shipping is available worldwide via FedEx or UPS . Mouser Electronics also stocks pigtail cable assemblies, providing datasheets and inventory for various lengths and connector types. Pricing depends on the specific assembly and quantity ordered .

Factors Affecting Cost

- Voltage and Connector Type: Standard 24 V cables are usually less expensive than custom 12 V or specialized connectors.
- Material and Quality: Higher-quality shielding, thicker gauge wires, or specialized insulation can increase the price.
- Supplier and Shipping: International shipping, insurance, and import duties may add to the total cost.

Practical Estimate

For a 15-meter pre-fabricated pigtail cable, expect a retail price range of approxima...
