

Manufacturer ONT Optical Network Terminal SFP

Article Overview

Leading manufacturers of ONT SFPs include Adtran, Zhone/DZS, Zhaoxian, Cambium Networks, and Nokia, offering compact pluggable solutions for residential and business fiber deployments.

Key Manufacturers and Offerings

Adtran provides the SDX 600 Series, which includes pluggable SFP ONTs designed for GPON and multigigabit services. These devices support voice, data, and video, and are optimized for cost-effective FTTH installations with simplified upgrades and zero-touch provisioning . Zhone/DZS offers a broad portfolio of ONTs and fiber termination solutions suitable for edge deployments. Their products cater to both residential and business customers, supporting multiple PON technologies and high-speed broadband . Zhaoxian specializes in FTTH hardware, including ONTs and SFP modules. They provide end-to-end manufacturing capabilities, from design and tooling to assembly, ensuring high-quality fiber optic equipment with global certifications . Cambium Networks manufactures indoor and outdoor ONTs with multi-gigabit symmetric speeds, supporting GPON and XGS-PON. Their SFP-based ONTs integrate with cnMaestro™ for unified management, enabling simplified deployment and monitoring of fiber networks . Nokia offers a range of ONTs, including small form-factor pluggable (SFP) devices for Ethernet switches, routers, and other CPE. Their ONTs support GPON, XGS-PON, and 25G PON, with options for voice (POTS), mesh networking, and Wi-Fi 7 integration. Nokia also provides automated provisioning through ONT Easy Start to streamline activations ...
