

Mongolian cloth switch industrial manufacturers

Article Overview

Mongolia hosts several prominent textile and garment manufacturers specializing in cashmere, wool, and knitwear, with industrial-scale production capabilities.

Key Manufacturers

GOBI Cashmere is one of Mongolia's largest garment producers, operating for over 40 years. The company produces high-quality cashmere knitwear and woven fabrics, sourcing raw materials from Mongolian nomads. GOBI employs over 1,500 people and delivers 1.1 million meters of woven material and 162,000 tailored items annually, emphasizing sustainable and humane practices in production . Mongol Textile JSC, established in 1934, manufactures yarns and finished products from cashmere, yak down, camel wool, and sheep wool. They produce both knitwear and woven fabrics, serving domestic and international markets . Siizu (Mongolia) operates since 1999 and focuses on premium cashmere knitwear. About 70% of their clothing uses fiber from their own ranch, supplemented with imported merino wool from Italy. The factory employs around 280 staff and uses modern technologies to ensure high-quality output . Weltrade Holding Co., Ltd. specializes in knitted garments and is another notable Mongolian manufacturer with industrial production capabilities .
