

Nepal KVM Switching Company

Article Overview

Nepal has several suppliers and distributors for KVM switches, including RD Suppliers, Genesis Technologies, Nepta Nepal, Daraz.com.np, and i-Tech Company.

Key Suppliers and Distributors

1. RD Suppliers RD Suppliers offers a range of KVM switches, HDMI splitters, and extenders suitable for server rooms, corporate setups, and home offices. Their products allow control of multiple computers with a single keyboard, monitor, and mouse, and they also provide wireless HDMI solutions and LAN extenders for longer signal transmission . 2. Genesis Technologies Limited Genesis Technologies is a distributor for NTI KVM switches in Nepal. They provide professional-grade KVM solutions for enterprise and data center environments. Interested customers can contact them directly for product details and purchasing information . 3. Nepta Nepal Nepta Nepal sells 4-port USB VGA KVM switches that support resolutions up to 1920 x 1440. These devices are plug-and-play and allow easy switching between multiple computers using a select button, making them suitable for small office setups . 4. Daraz.com.np Daraz, a popular online marketplace in Nepal, offers a wide variety of KVM switches at competitive prices. Customers can browse different brands, port configurations, and types, including USB and DVI KVM switches, with home delivery options . 5. i-Tech Company i-Tech provides an extensive selection of KVM solutions, including single-user, multi-user, USB, DVI, CAT5, wireless, and KVM over IP switches. They also offer console servers, rackmount KVMs, and accessories. i-Tech emphasizes consultation to help customers choose the best KVM solution for their specific needs, making them suitable for both corporate and data center applications
