

Oman ribbon optical cable price

Article Overview

Ribbon optical cables in Oman are available through authorized distributors like Avientek, with prices generally aligned with the regional optical fiber market, typically ranging from $7,000 to $7,500 per ton for imported cables.

Authorized Distributors

Avientek is the official Ribbon Communications distributor in Oman, serving enterprises and service providers in Muscat, Sohar, and Salalah . They provide carrier-grade optical networking solutions, including Ribbon optical cables, and offer technical support for deployment and integration. For precise pricing, contacting Avientek directly is recommended, as costs can vary based on cable type, quantity, and project requirements.

Market Pricing Context

According to market reports, the average import price for optical fiber cables in Oman in 2024 was approximately $7,059 per ton, remaining relatively stable compared to previous years . Ribbon optical cables, being premium and carrier-grade, are likely priced at or slightly above this average, depending on specifications such as ribbon count, fiber type (single-mode or multi-mode), and packaging.

Local Suppliers and Wholesale Options

Oman also has multiple fiber optic cable dealers and distributors in Muscat and other regions . Platforms like dubizzle Oman list fiber optic products for sale, which may i...
