

Singapore Fiber Optic Connector Wholesaler

Article Overview

Yes, Singapore hosts several wholesale manufacturers and suppliers of fiber optic connectors, including FiberTek and Norden Communication.

Key Manufacturers and Suppliers

1. FiberTek Established in 1999, FiberTek is a Singapore-based company specializing in a wide range of fiber optic products, including connectors, patch panels, cables, media converters, and splicing tools. They provide industrial-grade components suitable for various applications, including telecommunications, instrumentation, and high-temperature environments. FiberTek offers wholesale options and can supply bulk orders of fiber optic connectors and related components, making them a one-stop solution for fiber optic needs in Singapore . 2. Norden Communication Norden Communication manufactures and supplies fiber optic connectors in Singapore, including LC, SC, ST, MTRJ, and hybrid fast connectors. Their connectors are factory pre-polished and field-installable, designed to reduce installation errors and provide reliable performance in high-power laser and telecom applications. Norden focuses on wholesale and industrial clients, offering connectors compatible with tight buffer and standard fiber types . 3. Other Notable Suppliers Additional companies in Singapore that provide fiber optic connectors and related products include LinkStar Microtronics Pte. Ltd., Advanced Electronic Products Pte Ltd, and TeleScience Singapore. These companies offer a variety of passive and active optical components, patch cords, adapters, and splicing tools suitable for wholesale procurement
