

What is the price of a 48-pin connector box

Article Overview

The price of a 48-pin connector box varies widely depending on type, material, and supplier, ranging from a few dollars for standard connectors to over $50 for high-performance or automotive-grade models.

Typical Pricing and Suppliers

- DigiKey offers a wide selection of 48-pin headers and male pin connectors, with prices generally starting from $2-$10 per unit for standard PCB-mounted connectors, depending on quantity and specifications .
- Mouser Electronics lists 48-position standard circular connectors, with pricing typically in the $10-$40 range, depending on materials, plating, and environmental ratings .
- AliExpress provides budget-friendly options, often under $5 per connector, with discounts and free shipping available during promotions . These are suitable for consumer electronics or low-stress applications.
- Alibaba features industrial-grade 48-pin connectors, including sealed and high-density models, with prices varying widely based on customization, materials, and order volume .
- TE Connectivity (DEUTSCH DT04-48P-B016) offers automotive-grade housings and connectors. Pricing is not listed online, but you can request a quote directly from TE Connectivity for bulk or specialized orders .
