

What s the best way to cover up a distribution box

Article Overview

You can conceal a distribution box using decorative panels, furniture integration, or creative DIY solutions while keeping it accessible and safe.

Indoor Covering Ideas

1. Wall Art or Hinged Panels Mount a framed painting, tapestry, or decorative panel over the distribution box. Adding hinges allows easy access when needed, combining aesthetics with functionality . 2. Mirrors or Glass Panels Replace the box doors with mirror or patterned glass panels. This brightens the room and turns the box into a subtle design feature . 3. Furniture Integration Incorporate the box into a shoe bench, storage unit, or cabinet. For example, a recessed area above a bench can hide the box while providing seating or storage . 4. Pegboards or Bulletin Boards A pegboard can camouflage the box and double as a functional space for hanging items, while a bulletin board or chalkboard adds utility and style . 5. Curtains or Fabric Covers A simple curtain or fabric panel can quickly hide the box and match your room's decor, offering a flexible and inexpensive solution .

Outdoor Covering Ideas

1. Strategic Planting Use medium-sized evergreen shrubs like boxwood, holly, or arborvitae around the box, leaving 3-4 feet for maintenance access. Layered plantings with taller and shorter plants create depth and year-round coverage . 2. Custom Planter Boxes Portable planter boxes can conceal the box while allowing fle...
