

Where to buy best-selling PLC splitters

Article Overview

Top-selling PLC splitters, especially 1x4, 1x8, and 1x16 configurations, can be purchased from specialized fiber optic suppliers and B2B marketplaces like Alibaba, FS.com, Fiber24, and FiberCheap.

Recommended Suppliers and Platforms

- Alibaba: Offers a wide range of PLC splitters in bulk, including cassette and card-inserting types, with competitive pricing and access to Asia-Pacific manufacturers, particularly from China, which dominates the global market .
- FS.com: Provides high-reliability PLC splitters in various types (bare, blockless, ABS, LGX, rack mount) suitable for PON, EPON, and FTTX networks .
- Fiber24: Specializes in single-mode PLC splitters with ratios from 1:2 to 1:64, ensuring low failure rates and uniform signal distribution, ideal for data centers and FTTH installations .
- FiberCheap: Offers a complete buyer's guide and a variety of PLC splitters with detailed specifications, including insertion loss, return loss, uniformity, and environmental ratings, helping you select the right splitter for indoor or outdoor use .
- Alibaba SmartBuy: Provides guidance on choosing the best PLC splitter for network setups, emphasizing low insertion loss, high stability, and compatibility with standard wavelengths (1260–1650 nm), .

Key Considerations When Buying

- Split Ratio: Popular configurations are 1x4, 1x8, and 1x16. Higher split ratios (1x32, 1x64) are available but may reduce signal strength per output .
- Insertion Loss and Uniformity: Lower insertion loss (
